Al Qaeda's media arm as sahab released a video in 2012 titled ‘Why is there no storm in your ocean’

The video and transcripts were posted across several Jihadi forums and websites.

It had speeches asking the Indian Youth from Delhi, UP, Bihar, Gujrat and south India to join global Jihad

There were also several reports of youth joining global jihad as a result of this video

A lot of Indians, especially from Kerala are lured into Kuwait and Jordan with promises of employment

Indians working in middle east are preached and brainwashed about terrorism in mosques

ISIS also lures youth into terrorism via platforms like Facebook by directly contacting them

Abdul Rashid Abdullah is one example of a preacher who was directly radicalizing people in Kerala and pushing them to join the Islamic State in Afghanistan

Quoting Abdullah - ‘Today, it is impossible to wage offensive jihad in India. First, we have to consolidate the Caliphate, and then expand its frontiers,’ he told a reporter from his hideout in Afghanistan in 2017. ‘We have lots of people in India, and we tell them: wait, we’re coming. The Islamic State is growing far faster than you can imagine. The aim is for the whole world to be ruled by the law of Allah, so he alone is worshipped, not false gods,’ he said.
